Not illustrated. 1863 Excerpt: .a serious question, what shall be done with so many to whom a refusal of aid, is a signal for dissolution. The calls for help are more frequent, more urgent, and with better promise of success, than ever before, if help is granted. Not one in ten of our giving churches have forwarded a dollar for more than a twelve-month. To delay is greatly to endanger very precious interests. Will not all send something, before April 30, 1863? Our financial year closes at that date. What we have and shall receive by that time is our basis of work for the ensuing six months. I know that the means are in the hands of Christ's friends, to meet the present and pressing necessities of these feeble churches. Let the following letter be carefully read. It tells its own story. The writer is a well-known and highly...

This book can be well worth a go through, and a lot better than other. It is written in simple words and phrases and not confusing. It's been printed in an exceptionally simple way in fact it is merely right after I finished reading through this pdf by which basically changed me, modified the way I think.
