

Doctor Foster went to Gloucester

By Russell Punter

Usborne Publishing Okt 2015, 2015. Taschenbuch. Book
Condition: Neu. 251x250x3 mm. Neuware - This classic nursery rhyme is retold in a picture book version which sees Doctor Foster not only travelling to Gloucester, but also Oxford, Gosport, Stockton and Bognor, encountering not just rain but a range of other extreme weather conditions. Illustrated by David Semple, whose characterful artwork suits the doctor's dramatic journey perfectly. With simple, rhyming text, this charming picture book is perfect to read aloud to even very tiny children. Older children will enjoy reading it for themselves. Parents and children will love poring over David Semple's illustrations, pointing out funny details and talking about what's going on in each scene. Part of a growing range of paperback picture books from Usborne which includes titles such as 'Little Miss Muffet', 'Old Mother Hubbard' and 'One, Two, Buckle My Shoe'. 24 pp. English.
