Distraught, she travels to Crete-the island she and her deceased father had always been drawn to-in search of the key to her future. She finds far more than she'd bargained for: a country that awakens her senses and emotions, and a man who challenges her as she's never been challenged before. She feels an inexplicable connection to Dr. Stefanos Dimitrakis, a fugitive accused of murdering his uncle. When Stefanos insists he's innocent, Kieran's instincts tell her to believe him-but in the past her judgment has failed her. How can she now believe in a bond that defies reason?.
