Excerpt: .long a time there may be before He comes. I hope He will come before three years, said little Reggie. I glanced up when he said this, and I saw that the Rules for To-day were hung up over the chimney-piece. Mrs. Tremayne seemed to think of them at the same time, for she went to her writing-table and took out a copy of them, which she gave to me, and told me to hang it up in my bedroom. We are all trying to live by those rules, Peter, she said; and I hope, by God s grace, you will do so, too; then, I am sure, neither Bagot nor I will have any fault to find with you. As I was leaving the room, the little boy called me back. Peter, he said, stop a minute, Peter! Dear mother, may Peter take...
