Pausing, he seemed to say, Now, silly man, Tread on my tail if you like, or you can! Then in the hole he inserted his end, And bobbing politely a Good-bye, my friend! Vanished, me looking the while like a flat! Hang me, if snakes are not cute after that! TWADDLE. Two members of the Council were Hot seasoning at Ooty; And often in their walks the pair Conversed about their dooty. Oh, Peter Straight, said John McDoo, I feel with deep contrition That all of us have been untrue To our exalted mission. This mighty land strange Providence Has given to our keeping; And we appear at its expense Advantage to be reaping. Twas given us in trust, you know, To drill and educate it, And when the job is finished, go And straight evacuate it. But--oh, --from this our conduct s wide, It doesn t bear reviewing; It really makes me blush inside To think what we are doing. Of barracks we erect a lot, As if--the thought is humbling--We meant to stay, and they were not Perpetually tumbling. We tell the natives to repair In studious crowds to college; Then stick em into places where They don t require the knowledge. We tell em to beware of rum, And punish em for drinking; But cry pray grow your opium! Because it pays like winking. We say-- You niggers, why object To wife emancipation?...
