Negotiating the Past in the Past: Identity, Memory, and Landscape in Archaeological Research

By Norman Yoffee, Lynn Meskell, Jack Davis

University of Arizona Press. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Negotiating the Past in the Past: Identity, Memory, and Landscape in Archaeological Research, Norman Yoffee, Lynn Meskell, Jack Davis, Ralph Waldo Emerson once said that , ll history becomes subjective, that, in fact, properly there is no history, only biography.? Today, Emerson's observation is hardly revolutionary for archaeologists; it has become conventional wisdom that the present is a battleground where interpretations of the events and meanings of the past are constantly being disputed. What were the major events? Whose lives did these events impact, and how? Who were the key players? What was their legacy? We know all too well that the answers to these questions can vary considerably depending on what political, social, or personal agenda is driving the response. Despite our keen eye for discerning historical spin doctors operating today, it has been only in recent years that archaeologists have begun exploring in detail how the past was used in the past itself. This volume of ten original works brings critical insight to this frequently overlooked dimension of earlier societies. Drawing on the concepts of identity, memory, and landscape, the contributors show how these points of entry can lead...
