However, they cannot be empirically testified. On the contrary, more than thirty years of rich evidence from interdisciplinary cognitive science leave no doubt that the human mind is embodied in our entire organism and embedded in the world. The nature of our everyday sensory (i.e. visual, auditory, haptic, olfactory, gustatory, vestibular) and motoric experience, which is interactive and could be described as organism-environment co-ordination (Johnson & Rohrer 10), constitutes our species-specific view of the world (Evans & Green 45). Moreover it serves as information on the opportunities and costs of acting in the environment (Proffitt 110) and thereby at least indirectly (i.e. via our individual conceptual structures derived from embodied...

The ideal ebook i possibly study. Better then never, though i am quite late in start reading this one. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
